A Night to Remember: Masquerade Prom

BRIDGE members and their guests arrived at the University club dressed in their best and boasting masks that ranged from glittering gold classics to home-made alternatives crafted from leaves, sharpies, and cereal boxes. After being served a three course meal followed by a dessert buffet and tea, though only two of us could wear the crown, I believe we all felt like royalty. That is, of course, until George Clooney, Will Ferrell, and Barack Obama arrived through the back door and had us all on our knees. However, once everyone realized they were none of our own Danish dudes, the real contest for glory began. All participants vying for the crown entered into a contest of coordination, strength, and elegance, a dance-off to JT’s “Sexy Back.” What would have been a fight for glory; turned into a circle of support and encouragement as everyone cheered for all of our extremely talented competitors. Dancing seems to be in our blood, and it was on the dance floor that we both strengthened our bonds of friendship and our thighs.

Save the Date!

Holiday Party
Saturday, December 5th

This is our FINAL event this semester, so come have one last hurrah with BRIDGE! We rented out the entire 2nd floor of the Red Gym so come escape the cold, eat good food, be crafty, and get in the holiday spirit! We will be showing Elf as well as setting up karaoke and Just Dance if we are feeling up for it.

Save the Date!

JOURNAL SUBMISSIONS
Tuesday, December 8th

BRIDGE Journals are due Tuesday, December 8th! These are required for all US students wishing to return to the program.

End-of-Semester Banquet
Thursday, December 10th

Save the Date!

Sweet Treats: Chocolate Chip Cookie in a Cup Recipe

Ingredients:
- 2 tablespoons of Semi Sweet Chocolate Chips
- Slightly less than ¼ cup of All Purpose Flour
- 1 Egg Yolk (discard the egg white or save for different recipe)
- Small Pinch of Salt
- 3 Drops of Vanilla Extract
- 1 Tablespoon Granulated White Sugar
- 1 Tablespoon Butter

Instructions:
Start by melting your butter in the microwave. (Butter should just be melted, not boiling)
Add sugars, vanilla and salt. Stir to combine.
Separate your egg and add the yolk only to your cup.
Add flour, then stir again.
Stir to combine.
Add flour, then stir again.
Add the chocolate chips, and give a final stir. Now your mixture will look like cookie dough.

Sweet Treats: Chocolate Chip Cookie in a Cup

Four Frenchies set off on a Canadian Adventure
By: Laura G. (Team 8)

We (Marie, Laura, Cherifia and her sister) decided to organize a road trip for the Thanksgiving break. Only girls and only French, even if it was not on purpose! We were already good friends and we knew that we all have this craziness that makes traveling unforgettable. We were invited by Canadians to a Polish Thanksgiving dinner; we got soaking wet on the boat in Niagara Falls; we danced at the Friday Night Party at the Ontario Royal Museum; we admired the CN Tower from our balcony on the 33rd floor in Toronto; we ate fondue at the Christmas market. We discovered more about each other and still love each other after five days together!

Having Fun on the West Coast
By: Beltrando (Team 11)

I arrived here in August and since then I have been planning a trip with my friends. This trip occurred in the West Coast and it was amazing! We went to Nevada, California and Arizona. We could notice the difference between the Midwest and the West. Going to the Grand Canyon was the most amazing experience I have ever had in my life. Also, in Las Vegas we went to Freemont St, where we could have a lot of fun but we shared the idea that there is better than the Las Vegas Strip (I'm sorry people who like it there haha). We loved it there and I am so happy I had people I like to share the moment with me.

Kate and Thoms Thanksgiving
By: Thom (Team CALS)

After an one-hour drive from Madison to Fort Atty my really first Thanksgiving celebration could start. I was warned that Thanksgiving was mainly about testing your digestive system. Well, I can only affirm that. I had a fantastic classic Thanksgiving meal with Kate’s family and I realized where I’m thankful for: friends, the cook skills of Kate’s mother and the Dutch taxpayers that provided the opportunity for my exchange to Madtown.

Sweet Treats: Chocolate Chip Cookie in a Cup

Celebrity Sighting! Prom photos thanks to Mikayla E.

Sweet Treats: Chocolate Chip Cookie in a Cup

Adventure Time!

Four Frenchies set off on a Canadian Adventure
By: Laura G. (Team 8)

We (Marie, Laura, Cherifia and her sister) decided to organize a road trip for the Thanksgiving break. Only girls and only French, even if it was not on purpose! We were already good friends and we knew that we all have this craziness that makes traveling unforgettable. We were invited by Canadians to a Polish Thanksgiving dinner; we got soaking wet on the boat in Niagara Falls; we danced at the Friday Night Party at the Ontario Royal Museum; we admired the CN Tower from our balcony on the 33rd floor in Toronto; we ate fondue at the Christmas market. We discovered more about each other and still love each other after five days together!

Having Fun on the West Coast
By: Beltrando (Team 11)

I arrived here in August and since then I have been planning a trip with my friends. This trip occurred in the West Coast and it was amazing! We went to Nevada, California and Arizona. We could notice the difference between the Midwest and the West. Going to the Grand Canyon was the most amazing experience I have ever had in my life. Also, in Las Vegas we went to Freemont St, where we could have a lot of fun but we shared the idea that there is better than the Las Vegas Strip (I’m sorry people who like it there haha). We loved it there and I am so happy I had people I like to share the moment with me.

Kate and Thoms Thanksgiving
By: Thom (Team CALS)

After an one-hour drive from Madison to Fort Atty my really first Thanksgiving celebration could start. I was warned that Thanksgiving was mainly about testing your digestive system. Well, I can only affirm that. I had a fantastic classic Thanksgiving meal with Kate’s family and I realized where I’m thankful for: friends, the cook skills of Kate’s mother and the Dutch taxpayers that provided the opportunity for my exchange to Madtown.

Adventure Time!

Four Frenchies set off on a Canadian Adventure
By: Laura G. (Team 8)

We (Marie, Laura, Cherifia and her sister) decided to organize a road trip for the Thanksgiving break. Only girls and only French, even if it was not on purpose! We were already good friends and we knew that we all have this craziness that makes traveling unforgettable. We were invited by Canadians to a Polish Thanksgiving dinner; we got soaking wet on the boat in Niagara Falls; we danced at the Friday Night Party at the Ontario Royal Museum; we admired the CN Tower from our balcony on the 33rd floor in Toronto; we ate fondue at the Christmas market. We discovered more about each other and still love each other after five days together!

Having Fun on the West Coast
By: Beltrando (Team 11)

I arrived here in August and since then I have been planning a trip with my friends. This trip occurred in the West Coast and it was amazing! We went to Nevada, California and Arizona. We could notice the difference between the Midwest and the West. Going to the Grand Canyon was the most amazing experience I have ever had in my life. Also, in Las Vegas we went to Freemont St, where we could have a lot of fun but we shared the idea that there is better than the Las Vegas Strip (I’m sorry people who like it there haha). We loved it there and I am so happy I had people I like to share the moment with me.

Kate and Thoms Thanksgiving
By: Thom (Team CALS)

After an one-hour drive from Madison to Fort Atty my really first Thanksgiving celebration could start. I was warned that Thanksgiving was mainly about testing your digestive system. Well, I can only affirm that. I had a fantastic classic Thanksgiving meal with Kate’s family and I realized where I’m thankful for: friends, the cook skills of Kate’s mother and the Dutch taxpayers that provided the opportunity for my exchange to Madtown.